

Resettlement Partners

Welcome the stranger.
Protect the refugee.

Founded in the 1880s to help resettle Jews fleeing persecution, HIAS is the world's oldest refugee agency. Today, guided by our Jewish values and history, we bring more than 130 years of expertise to our work providing services to all refugees in need of assistance, regardless of their national, ethnic, or religious background. One of nine resettlement agencies authorized by the United States federal government, HIAS contracts with the Department of State to resettle refugees in 12 states and more than 20 cities across the U.S. through non-profit resettlement partners.

HIAS works with non-profit resettlement partners to ensure services for refugees, including housing assistance, English language learning, medical screening, and employment assistance. Our resettlement partners collaborate with state and local offices along with other community stakeholders like congregations and social service organizations to ensure integration and success of new refugee arrivals.

Mission and Values

VALUES: HIAS stands for a world in which refugees find welcome, safety, and freedom.

MISSION: HIAS rescues people whose lives are in danger for being who they are.

- We protect the most vulnerable refugees, helping them build new lives and reuniting them with their families in safety and freedom.
- We advocate for the protection of refugees and assure that displaced people are treated with the dignity they deserve.
